

WORKING WITH REAL ESTATE AGENTS (LEASE TRANSACTIONS) (FOR TENANTS)

NOTE: This form is designed for use by agents working with tenants. It is similar, but not identical, to the "Working with Real Estate Agents Disclosure (For Buyers)" published by the NC Real Estate Commission (available as NCAR Standard Form #520), which must be used by agents working with buyers.

IMPORTANT

This form is not a contract. Signing this disclosure only means you have received it.

- In a real estate lease transaction, it is important that you understand whether an agent represents you.
- Real estate agents should (1) review this form with you at first substantial contact - before asking for or receiving your confidential information and (2) give you a copy of it after you sign it. This is for your own protection.
- Do not share any confidential information with a real estate agent or assume that the agent is acting on your behalf until you have entered into an agreement with the agent to represent you. Otherwise, the agent can share your confidential information with others.

Note to Agent: Check all relationship types below that may apply to this tenant.

_____ Tenant Agency: If you agree, the agent who gave you this form (and the agent's firm) would represent you as a tenant agent and be loyal to you. You may begin with an oral agreement, but your agent must enter into a written tenant agency agreement with you before making a written or oral offer for you. The landlord would either be represented by an agent affiliated with a different real estate firm or be unrepresented.

_____ Dual Agency Dual agency will occur if you lease a property listed by the firm that represents you. If you agree, the real estate firm and any agent with the same firm (company), would be permitted to represent you and the landlord at the same time. A dual agent's loyalty would be divided between you and the landlord, but the firm and its agents must treat you and the landlord fairly and equally and cannot help you gain an advantage over the other party.*

_____ Designated Dual Agency: If you agree, the real estate firm would represent both you and the landlord, but the firm would designate one agent to represent you and a different agent to represent the landlord. Each designated agent would be loyal only to their client.*

*Any agreement between you and an agent that permits dual agency must be put in writing no later than the time you make an offer to lease.

_____ Unrepresented Tenant (Landlord subagent): The agent who gave you this form may assist you in your lease, but will not be representing you and has no loyalty to you. The agent will represent the landlord and is required to give the landlord any information about you (even personal, financial or confidential information) that would help the landlord in the lease of their property.

Note to Tenant: For more information on an agent's duties and services, refer to the NC Real Estate Commission's "Questions and Answers on: Working With Real Estate Agents" brochure at ncrec.gov (Publications, Q&A Brochures) or ask an agent for a copy of it.
